

2014 Record of Trustee Education

Effective January 1, 2013, trustees are required by statute to undergo a minimum of 24 hours of trustee education within the first two years of assuming office and for every subsequent two-year period the trustee continues to hold membership on the Board (§31522.8). This requirement is captured in the Trustee Education Policy. For the purposes of implementing the above statutory requirement, the policy requires that trustees who assumed office prior to January 1, meet the above requirement for the two-year period beginning January 1, 2013 and for every subsequent two-year period the trustee continues to hold membership on the Board.
